Tutoring Experience

I have spent over 3 years tutoring IB English, honing my skills over more than 200 hours of classes. My students, who hail from a range of backgrounds, have improved their literary comprehension, essay writing, and interpretation of texts. Feedback from students and parents alike consistently praises my approachable demeanor, my comprehensive knowledge, and my dedication to enhancing each student's performance.

I have an extensive background in English language instruction, ranging from community ESL programs in Amsterdam to summer language immersion camps in France. My international experiences have equipped me with the ability to cater to a diverse range of learning styles and to connect with students from all over the world.

Tutoring Approach

In our English lessons, we first identify the areas where you need assistance, and we assess your current understanding. For IB English, we spend time honing essay writing skills, understanding literary concepts, and developing the ability to analyze and interpret texts critically. Our sessions typically involve reviewing past papers, creating detailed essay outlines, and practicing the skill of producing cogent arguments within strict time limits.

After each session, I provide constructive feedback on your work and offer specific advice to improve. Whether you're preparing for an exam or need assistance with an Extended Essay, I ensure that our lessons are engaging, enlightening, and tailored to your unique needs.
