Tutoring Experience

Over the past two years, I've been tutoring students from various international schools in Istanbul, helping them navigate the challenging terrain of the IB and IGCSE. Having gone through the same curriculum myself, I'm keenly aware of the areas students often struggle with. I've helped over 50 students, individually and in group sessions, achieve remarkable improvements in their grades. I've also worked closely with school teachers, ensuring my approach is in line with classroom teaching, giving my students a holistic learning experience.

Tutoring Approach

My teaching style is dynamic and interactive. I believe in a two-way flow of knowledge - students aren't just passive recipients; they actively construct knowledge. To foster this, I incorporate multimedia resources, practical examples, and real-world applications. By contextualizing complex Mathematical and physical concepts, I ensure understanding is deep-rooted. Every student is unique, so I customize my sessions based on individual needs, ensuring that their strengths are honed and their weak spots addressed. I'm not just a tutor; I'm a mentor who ensures students develop a genuine interest in the subjects.
