Tutoring Experience

Over the past 6 years, I've been a guiding hand for over 70 students. My tutelage has seen their IB and IGCSE scores exceed expectations, often achieving more than 6 points above their predicted scores. Whether it's English, Spanish, or their Extended Essay, I aim to make every lesson count.

Tutoring Approach

My tutoring approach is holistic and personalized. I focus on understanding each student's individual needs and learning styles, adapting my teaching accordingly. For internal assessments, we concentrate on honing argumentative skills and essay structuring. To prepare for exams, we delve into exam techniques, dissect past papers, and master key themes. In the context of Extended Essays, we delve deep into the topic selection and research methodology. I aim to create an open, engaging environment where students are encouraged to question and explore, and where making mistakes is simply part of the learning journey.
