Tutoring Approach

A highly specialised and tailored approach embedding mastery teaching elements, cross curricular links, and deeper understanding at each at every step to ensure strong foundations are established.

Contextualization and exam technique is used to focus on what students can expect to encounter during examinations and how to approach, strategically answer and build exam confidence.

I take pride in using my tried and tested mastery-based learning approach which has seen learners excel and succeed during the 13 years of my teaching & tutoring experience.

Testimonials

"I managed to obtain an A* in my Biology A level, thank you for all your help and advice on exam questions"

Lara, previous student from Oxford ★★★★★

"...I achieved 4 A* in Mathematics, Biology, Chemistry and Further Mathematics. It is good to know all my tutoring and hard work paid off. I will be studying natural sciences and then going on to specialize in Neuroscience at the University of Cambridge, London"
