Tutoring Experience

Eight years ago, my tutoring journey started, fostering a profound love for teaching. From peer tutoring in college to guiding IB, A-level, and IGCSE students, I honed my skills. Teaching in Jeddah and online worldwide, my diverse experience led to a multifaceted approach. I now excel in Literature, History, Economics, Maths, TOK, Biology, and Physics, adapting to various student needs and learning styles.

Tutoring Approach

As a tutor, I encourage my students to question, challenge, and explore. I blend my research background into my teaching methodology, showcasing practical examples of theoretical concepts, which enhances the student's understanding and retention.

My goal is not only to guide students to academic excellence but also to foster a deep appreciation for learning. By nurturing problem-solving skills and critical thinking, I prepare my students for lifelong learning journeys.
